JAPANESE STUDIES PROGRAM

Learn Japanese for the real world.

The Center for Japanese Language and Culture (CJLC) has been a place for international students, hailing from all over the world, to attain a high level of Japanese language skills that can be practically applied to a wide range of situations and for diverse purposes. While maintaining the same quality of individualized education, the program now features increased practical experience in Japanese language and culture through new courses that include Japanese students.

Small class size for individualized instruction

We offer instruction in a small class setting in order to maintain a curriculum that serves each student as individual learners. At each level, students can receive one-to-one lessons with an assigned instructor, focusing on the needs of the student.

Study with Japanese students

Undergraduate courses, taken by native Japanese students, are incorporated into the curriculum for upper level students, providing unique experiences that will enhance the students' Japanese language ability and cultural understanding.

The best of both worlds

Study at the Hoshigaoka Campus, which is located conveniently near public transportation and a popular shopping district, full of restaurants and cafes. You can easily go to local museums, the Nagoya Castle, and other trendy spots after class. The dormitory is located in Nagakute, a 20-minute shuttle bus ride (free) from the Hoshigaoka Campus, offering a comfortable environment suitable to students.

Program Outline

The Aichi Shukutoku University Center for Japanese Language and Culture offers Japanese language courses that match the individual level of each student, and courses in Japanese culture that place an emphasis on practical experience. Undergraduate courses are incorporated into the curriculum to give our students opportunities to study and learn with Japanese students.

There are six levels of instruction, from “Japanese I” to “Japanese VI.” The courses offered are aimed to develop all four skills at the level appropriate for each student. The goal is to provide tools to communicate in the real world effectively.
